Dylan Mitchley

I developed my first website back in 2013 and have worked in a host of different industries. I love the mix of logical and creative qualities a Web developer should have. I recently took a coding BootCamp at Hyperion Development where we learnt Full Stack Development (Mongo DB, Express JS, React, Node JS).

WORK HISTORY

UI Designer - Web Developer
Lightly Salted Media | Aug 2013 - Present

I still help run Lightly Salted Media. This is the name of the business I use for my freelance work . I have designed many web & mobile applications and handle front-end web development.

Director of Photography
Various Companies | Jun 2016 - Jul 2020

I have a background in video production so I did on many occasions work as a camera operator or director of photography. I stopped this work because of the covid-19 pandemic destroying the entire industry

Web Design Intern
